CASE NO.: 1D18-1736

L.T. No.: CW201706526, W 1692584

J. J. III

v.

Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing

Appellant / Petitioner(s),

Appellee / Respondent(s)

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

Appellee's notice of confidential information throughout court record, filed August 27, 2018, is treated as a motion to determine confidentiality of appellate case file, and is granted in part. This appeal is hereby restyled as J.J. III v. Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Licensing. In accordance with section 790.0601, Florida Statutes, the Court will maintain all personal identifying information of Appellant as confidential, but will not maintain the entire case file as confidential.

The information required by Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420(e)(3) is as follows:

(A) This case is an appeal of an administrative final order revoking a concealed weapon or firearm license;

(B) Personal identifying information of the Appellant is confidential and exempt under section 790.0601, Florida Statutes and section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes;

(C) The name of the Appellant is subject to confidentiality provisions. The Appellant shall be referred to as "J.J.";

(D) The progress docket is not confidential, so long as it does not contain any personal information that would identify the Appellant;

(E) Particular information that is determined to be confidential includes the following: names; addresses; social security numbers; and any other personal identifying information;

(F) Persons who are permitted to view confidential information in this case include the parties and their attorneys only;

(G) This Court finds that (i) the degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality ordered by the Court are no broader than necessary to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (c); and (ii) no less restrictive measures are available to protect the interests set forth in subdivision (c); and

(H) The Clerk of the Court is directed to publish this order in accordance with subdivision (e)(4) by posting a copy of this order, within ten (10) days following its entry, on the Clerk's website and in a prominent public location in the courthouse, to remain posted in both locations for no less than thirty (30) days; and to provide a copy of this order to the clerk of the lower tribunal, with directions that the lower tribunal clerk is to seal the records identified in the order in accordance with Rule 2.420(g)(4).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is (a true copy of) the original court order.
